

RICHARD ANDERTON

NOV. 23RD AT 6PM

With over 25 years of experience as a teacher and trainer, Richard is known for his thoughtful and engaging approach.

Rather than telling people what to think, he asks the right questions—encouraging others to form their own well-informed opinions.

As a contract trainer for the Calgary Real Estate Board, Richard consistently earned outstanding evaluations from his students, with satisfaction ratings above 97%. His professional experience also includes delivering training for Alberta Health Services, Imperial Oil, Shell Canada, ConocoPhillips, and several leading law firms in Calgary.

Join us as Richard shares the latest updates from the Alberta Prosperity Project and explores a compelling question: Is Alberta Independence Inevitable?
